Historically, the University of Maine System (UMS) has reported the number of Maine high school students who matriculated at one of our institutions directly out of high school and who required enrollment in one or more remedial/developmental courses (in accordance with Public Law 2011, Chapter 615). Although the compilation and reporting requirements regarding remedial education are no longer legally required after July 1, 2016, the UMS continues to provide statistics related to remedial education.

This report includes the following:

- A summary of the number of students enrolled in remedial courses disaggregated by the subject areas of English language arts and mathematics – this data is presented by campus;
- A summary, by Maine high school, of students who graduated June 2018, matriculated into one of our institutions, and who required one or more remedial/developmental classes. Of the 2,415 Maine high school students who matriculated in Fall 2018, 117 (4.8%) required one or more remedial/developmental classes;
- A summary of the retention rates of those students in the Fall 2017 cohort; retention rates nationally are tracked fall-to-fall semester. Note that graduation rates for this cohort will not be available until 2021 assuming a 4-year graduation rate. We also have included additional information on students who may have left the institution originally attended but who subsequently enrolled at another.

Special Notes related to the Remediation Report

For the purposes of this report, we have employed the following guidelines:

For the report related to 1A and 1B [Enrollment in Remedial Coursework] of the legislation:

- “Traditional student” is defined as a student who has attended any accredited public school or private school in the State or who participated in a home instruction program and has received a high school diploma in the June proceeding the fall in which the student matriculates. For the purpose of the report submitted January 2019, the student would have received the high school diploma in June 2018;
- “Remedial courses” are those within English language arts (including ESL) and mathematics, and defined as courses below the 100-level. There are multiple offerings in each subject and they will be disaggregated by subject area but not by the individual course;
- Students may be enrolled in more than one course in a semester; the “duplicated” number includes all courses;
- “Unduplicated” students are those enrolled in any remedial course. For those schools for whom five or fewer students were enrolled in a remedial course, an asterisk (*) will appear;
- A new report will be issued each year specific to that year’s graduating class in Maine’s high schools.

For the report related to 1C – Retention and Graduation:

- Typically, retention rates nationally are calculated utilizing a fall-to-fall picture of the data. So, this would take the class which received its high school diploma in June 2017 and track its retention from Fall 2017 to Fall 2018.
- The report includes only aggregate reporting by university of those traditional students who were enrolled in remedial classes and will not include data disaggregated by English/math or secondary school.

¹ Traditional Student is defined in LD1645 as a student who has attended any accredited public school or private school in the State, or who has participated in a home instruction program pursuant to section 5001-A, subsection 3, paragraph A and has received a high school diploma, GED or adult diploma in the June preceding the fall in which the student matriculates in the [Maine Community College System][University of Maine System].

² First-time students are students with no prior postsecondary experience attending any institution at the undergraduate level, including students enrolled in academic or occupational programs. It also includes students enrolled in the fall term who attended college for the first time in the prior summer term, and students who entered with advanced standing (college credits earned before graduation from high school).

⁴ Students may be enrolled in more than one course in more than one subject in a semester, and this total includes all courses.

⁷ Retention for all campuses and UMS for the purposes of the report is defined as any student enrolled in the previous Fall semester returning to the same UMS campus in the following Fall.

⁸ Not enrolled at any institution means that the student was not found in the UMS PeopleSoft Database or the National Student Clearinghouse as enrolled in a college or university on December 1, 2018.
